Up Goes The Toll

The Illinois Tollway, in an effort to raise more money, plans to raise the toll.

This sounds about as effective in raising the total revenue as the policy of the merchant who, when his income drops because competing merchants are taking away his trade, raises his prices to increase his income. It just doesn't work.

A lot of people who would like to use the tollway don't use it because it costs money. With the toll raised, a lot who now use it will quit using it because of the increase.

We'd be willing to bet that if the tollway lowered the toll they'd take in more money than they receive at present. The revenue from the road has been dropping steadily because a lot of people who used it for a while grew tired of paying the price.

The exorbitant charge for service to the unlucky motorist who runs into car trouble or out of gas on the tollway hasn't helped, either. Once bitten, twice shy, and the driver who has had to pay for service once isn't likely to risk getting caught again.

Your Governor Reports by OTTO KERNER

Illinois health and welfare agencies will provide better and quicker service under an extensive new regional unification plan that involves the construction of seven office-service buildings in key locations across the state.

Seven state agencies and departments had adopted common regional boundaries and will share the new buildings, which will serve as regional headquarters. The new buildings were authorized, at my request, by the recent session of the General Assembly.

The structures will house offices for the Department of Mental Health, Department of Public Aid, Department of Public Health, Department of Children and Family Services, Illinois Youth Commission, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and Division of Services for Crippled Children.

The reorganization is the Outgrowth of a study that I ordered almost two years ago by a special committee of experts in the health and welfare field. This committee found that in many instances a family had to run all over a city and county to find the proper agency to handle its case.

In addition, many agencies were duplicating paperwork and were not effectively cooperating with each other. This new arrangement will streamline both the administration and provision of services to our state's citizens.

Under the program, every county in the state except Cook—now with adequate central facilities—will be located, in one of the seven regions and will be served by one of the centralized headquarters buildings. The location of the regional centers has not yet been determined.

The buildings will be financed by bonds sold by the Illinois Building Authority and will be paid off with rent paid by the state. The total cost of all the structures will not exceed $8 million. When built, the buildings will serve as headquarters for the agencies involved in the plan and as service centers for the people of the area.

Antioch is located in Region 7 which includes the counties of DuPage, Grundy, Kane, Kendall, Lake, McHenry and Will.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Preview of September County Board Meeting: (Apologies to Eugene Field) The Courthouse dog and the P. works cat. Side by side in the Board room sat.
'Twas quarter to 12 and though you may think both being hungry and wanting a drink.
They would settle their differences amicably—
You've another thing coming as you will see.
Money "grabs" aren't solved as easy as that.
(I wasn't there; I'd gone to eat.
But I heard the racket, down on the street.)

The Courthouse dog barked, "That's my dough."
The P. Works cat snarled, "Who said so?"
Then hundreds of thousands of dollars flew.
Back and forth and the air was blue;
While the spectators along the wall
Saw first one, then the other, fall.
And laid bets on the way the fight would go.
(I didn't bet; I wasn't there. I'd given a black-robed judge my chair.)

The fight waxed hotter, the 3rd floor shook
And cries of "Double-cross," "Liar," "Crook."
"You took this, I was promised that You Courthouse dog," hissed the P. Works cat.
His claws reached out to take the loot
He pulled in the Courthouse case to boot.
But discarded that, after one quick look.
(This brought a laugh from spectators row
So I was told, that's how I know.)

Then quiet returned, where the two had sat
There wasn't a sign of the dog or the cat.
Nor was there a sign of the "excess" dough.
Which one took it? Where

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

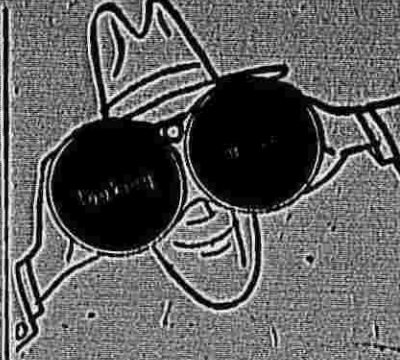

With the advent of School Days, great numbers of students will enter the portals of educational institutions at all levels from kindergarten to college. Much has been said about the importance of education today more than ever before in history. Proven facts and figures tell us that education, and the amount absorbed by an individual, will probably control his income for the rest of his or her life. Never to be outdone on any subject, Annie Mae felt compelled to add her two cents in rhyme, for whatever it is worth. Every bit of learning definitely leaves its mark. Use each day of schooling carefully! Don't think it a lark!

After school days have ended then it will be too late, if you have not paid attention.
Or learned to concentrate. Now, Dear Student, is the age of Education!

THE LATEST REPORT: Saw Gene Diemer play bumps-a-daisy with a station wagon last week, on Lake St. . . a group of Tuesday night Bridge ladies, namely Mesdames Ripley, Jensen, Stanich, LaPlant and Williams, pooled some sort of resources they have and hired themselves in to view Robert Goulet a week ago, and none of them have been the same since. . . I don't want to be a wet blanket or anything but Sept. 1, the second installment of R. E. Taxes are due. But then you are probably one of the fortunate ones who doesn't need two installments. . . Murph Toepper is the proud new owner of a Volkswagen and guess who's running around in the Greenbird?

BEHIND THE PRESS: Howard Shepard, who is apprenticing for the Rescue Squad, has found out it may not be hard labor but it's the timing that counts! . . . Our pixieish Lil Battista has been spending her nites fixing up the new home she just purchased.

THE LAST DROP: Speaking of the Rescue Squad, wonder if it wouldn't be a top-notch idea to have an emergency phone installed outside the squad building. Passersby in need of emergency help could be put in contact with Vivian almost immediately. Just such a case happened the other day. These people were not familiar with our town, but saw the Rescue Squad sign and pulled up for help. Naturally there was no one at the building and someone had to run a block to a phone. Maybe it wouldn't work, but it's an idea anyway. . . Lorraine Folbrich has become Mrs. Stan Totton as of Saturday, August 17. Annie extends her best wishes to a fine couple! . . . By Pearl Kapell
After helping a friend try to shop for some summer clothes for a vacation trip last week, I can't help thinking that merchants have finally outsmarted themselves by their policy of early starts on the seasons.

There are a lot of sales being lost because women planning a vacation can't find clothes they need, or want, for their trip.
Winter clothes now go on display the first of August. Out go the summer clothes. If you do manage to find a rack with a few left-over summer items, they're just that—leftovers that no one else wanted.

With the temperature at 90 degrees, you're in the mood for a sleeveless, cool-summer dress. What are you shown? Fur coats. Warm wool sweaters and skirts and red wool knee-length stockings. Even in air-conditioned stores, your skin shrinks at the thought of slipping into the warm, woolly clothes.

Who's in the mood to try on winter clothes in August? Or summer clothes in January?
What's more important, who wants to spend the money she has now for a dress she can't wear for four months, when she's simply dying for a bright new outfit she can wear tomorrow?

The whole idea of displaying winter clothes (and summer clothes) three or four months before they can be worn, is based on the assumption that most women plan their wardrobes carefully, and have money put away to buy their clothes before the season starts. And we just don't believe this is true. Women buy clothes when they feel like buying clothes, they buy because they see something they can't resist, something that is just what they want right now. And it's very easy to resist a beautiful red wool dress in August.

Jones have just returned from a vacation in the northwoods. . . wait till you see (if you haven't already) that very slimmed-down Mary Bruski as P. E. teacher at A.G.S.

DID YOU HEAR: The first grader who asked his father who Richard Stands was? When the puzzled father couldn't answer, the child said that every morning they said a pledge to him, "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for Richard Stands."
Bet I'm teacher's pet today!

The Men Who Wash Water

Although most Americans aren't aware of it, the sources of water for thousands of communities are streams into which other communities have dumped their sewage.

And the water that comes out of taps in hundreds of thousands of American homes got there via somebody else's drain.

It isn't "contaminated" water that those Americans are drinking. Expensive—and often ingenious—purification equipment takes the harmful ingredients out of this "re-used" water.

But the job of making impure water pure again, is one that has cost towns, counties and states thousands of dollars. And as the population continues to boom, it will become necessary to spend even more money on this job if there is to be enough water for everyone.

The job of getting cheap wholesome water to everyone who needs it fascinated two engineers, Igor Karassik and Joseph Sebald. Both of them were executives in charge of engineering projects at the Worthington Corp. when they began discussing the problem last year.

The facts at their disposal were the same facts that had been bothering water supply experts for years. The supply of "naturally clean" water was running out. The amount of water that growing industries and an exploding population were taking from reservoirs and wells all over the United States was growing so enormous that in time there wouldn't be enough water to go around.

Meanwhile, cities desperate for water had been taking their supply from river and streams into which other cities had dumped their treated sewage. As Karassik and Sebald described it, many municipal water supply systems work this way:

"A city locates its water treating plant upstream on a river, and after using this water, discharges it in the form of treated effluent downstream into the same river. The next city downstream repeats this process, and the next. Downstream City drinks treated water that has already been used by cities A, B, and C."

"In many instances, an objective study would show that these cities are really treating and reusing sewage effluent."

Karassik and Sebald next began to wonder whether this treated sewage was entirely safe. Cities filtered, chlorinated and aerated their water before sending it on to the taps of these inhabitants, but even the best of these water purification processes only killed off 95 percent of the water's bacteria content.

Simple mathematical calculations showed that 95 percent pure water wasn't pure enough. A city of two million inhabitants who made their sewage 95 percent pure before returning it to a river were contaminating the water as much as a city of 100,000 whose citizens dumped completely raw sewage into the same stream. Outbreaks of virus and "intestinal flu" epidemics might well be traced to this incompletely treated water, the engineers reasoned.

To find a better way of purifying "used" water cheaply, the two Worthington engineers decided to try improving pasteurization, a process that had been invented in the 19th Century.

Louis Pasteur, a French chemist and bacteriologist, had learned that by heating milk to 161 degrees Fahrenheit, much of its harmful content could be killed off—not all of it, but enough to make milk safer to drink than it had been for centuries.

Milk couldn't be heated much higher than 161 degrees without spoiling, but water wouldn't spoil no matter how hot it became. It could be raised, under pressure, to 284 degrees, high enough to kill even "thermophilic" bacteria that were sometimes present in treated sewage, and that could live through ordinary pasteurization.

Getting water hot enough was no problem. The problem was to find a heating process so cheap that it could be used in municipal water supply systems.

Could it be done? The two engineers thought so.

It took long months of burning the midnight oil in the Worthington labs to come up with a working model of a "Pasteurizer," (patents and copyrights applied for) a device that can sterilize water completely at a cost slightly over 20 cents per thousand gallons.

Though that's still more expensive than purifying water with chlorine, "Pasteurization" leaves no unpleasant taste in water and purifies more thoroughly than chlorine can if it is to be used in drinking water, the engineers say. Furthermore, it is expected that "Pasteurization" may in time become cheaper.

It may be a while before municipal water works use the "Pasteurization" process, but it is likely this method of purifying water will be put to other uses almost immediately. Beer companies, Karassik and Sebald say, have expressed interest in sterilizing their bottles with "Pasteurized" water, and in using it for the brewing process. A "Pasteurizer" unit can be mounted on a flat car and rushed to disaster areas where the regular water supply had been cut off or fouled. And rural home-owners, plagued by water seeping from septic tanks into wells, may find small "Pasteurizer" units solving their fouled water problems.

More important, however, is the role "Pasteurization" will play in the future.

For almost every spot on the face of the earth, the two engineers wrote recently, "there's going to come a time when it's cheaper to provide artificially conditioned water than to go far afield after fresh water supplies."

For a sea-going vessel or a desert community, that point was reached long ago. For our own Dakotas, it's here now. For New York City or Chicago it may come in 40 years. In Alaska or Siberia it may come in the foreseeable future. But it will come.

Whenever the time comes, the "Pasteurization" process invented by the two Worthington engineers who one day got curious about "re-used" water will be providing an answer to water supply problems.

A government crop inspector visited a Kentucky farm and began asking questions.

"Do you people around here have trouble with insects getting in your corn?" "We sure do," said the farmer, "but we jes fishes them out an' drinks it anyhow."

USE COIN-OPERATED DRY CLEANING PROPERLY

URBANA — Studies show that coin-operated dry cleaning works well for many articles that need little or no pressing. But you may not get satisfactory results with other articles, says Marjorie Mead, University of Illinois extension textiles and clothing specialist.

She explains that home-makers have obtained good results with such articles as sweaters, knit dresses and suits, blankets (non-electric draperies and slipcovers).

Machine cleaning isn't designed to give clothing a professionally pressed look. The machines may not remove wrinkles from garments although the process itself will not add new ones. Some machine services provide a water spray outside the machines. Applied before cleaning, this spray can help remove wear wrinkles from garments.

Too, the machine process offers little, if any, opportunity for pre-cleaning spot removal. Water spray will help remove sugar spots. For stains of unknown origin or ones such as blood or milk that may not dissolve in dry cleaning solvent, Miss Mead recommends using a professional cleaner. In a coin-machine, the solvent could set these stains.

Some articles and materials don't take favorably to the machine process. On the "not recommended" list are raincoats because they lose water repellency and the machine can't replace it, electric blankets because the process may damage the insulation, and pillows and comforters because they may lose their shape and resiliency.

Avoid machine cleaning anything made with leather because it becomes brittle. Rubber may lose its elasticity, felt may shrink. Metals may become stiff, soft or dissolve. The pattern in flock and lacquer prints may disappear. Stiffened fabric may become soft. Embossed fabric may lose its texture.

For best results in machine dry-cleaning, sort articles by color. Put articles together that won't cause too much damage if colors run. For example, put reds, oranges and pinks together. Sometimes mixing colored clothes with white ones causes them to pick up lint and look discolored.

In spite of its limitations,

THE ANTIOCH NEWS
THURSDAY, AUGUST 22

coin-operated dry cleaning does have some good points. It can save you money though you continue to use some articles to a professional cleaner. Also, the process requires a minimum effort and time. In cases you can get your things back within an hour. In the future, some improvements may be such as spot-cleaning, and more pressing of the premises. These features will extend the range of this dry-cleaning method.

The Annual 49ers party was a success, according to Arthur Andersen, chairman. A good crowd was present dressed in Western style, the code of the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andersen attended the Third District meeting at Woodstock Moose Home last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Mark and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andersen attended the Winner Legion No. 74 breakfast meeting at Highland Park Moose Home last Sunday morning.

Campus News

Urbana, Ill.—David Sidney Soncek, 888 Hillside, Antioch, and Mary Jane White, Rt. 2, Box 285, Antioch, both of whom will enter the University of Illinois as freshmen in September, visited the campus recently for a day of advance enrollment.

The pre-enrollment program included a meeting with an academic adviser to discuss a course of study and to arrange a class schedule for the fall.

Class of '33 Reunion Held

The Class of 1933 of Antioch Township High School has scattered as far away as California, Arizona, Iowa, Florida, New Jersey, Wisconsin and Indiana, but the majority are still living in Illinois and in the area of their home town of Antioch.

This was learned when 43 persons attended the 30th reunion of the Class of '33 at a supper in Hunter's Country Club, Richmond, Ill. Harold Nelson served as master of ceremonies.

There were 40 graduates but it was learned that the class lost another member, William Waters, last year. Three members were not located and information is needed to notify them of the next reunion.

Faculty sponsors of the class, Dr. Gerald Reed, professor of biology at the Oak-kosh State College, Wis., and Miss Alice Smith, of Antioch, were present. Also present was Mrs. Mildred Chambers, who was office secretary.

present were Mr. W. Boucos, Mr. Ted Myalinski and Mr. William Steinmetz. The Cub Scouts who received their Bobcat pins were Tim and Ken Boucos, Richard and Robert Myalinski, Robert Steinmetz, Larry Wally, Richard Wells and Jerry Zanzola. The pins were placed upside down, until the time the Cub Scout does a good deed, then the pin can be worn right side up.

Larry Wally read the diary which told the activities the Cub Scouts have done for the entire month. Projects were displayed, which consisted of Indian teepee door stops, which the Cubs have made in rock collection.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Boucos.

First Son
Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Matsio of 2313 S. E. Thornwood Dr. the proud parents of a little boy born to them Aug. 15 at Condell Memorial Hospital. The baby has been named James Anthony. He weighed in at 7 pounds, 12½ ounces, at 2:40 a.m. Mr. Matsio said he arrived home just in time to start on his milk route.

The two big sisters who welcome their new brother Saturday are Mary Anne 10½ and Sharon, 9. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Matsio of Chicago and George and Dot Griffin who reside with the Matsios.

Parents Visiting

Vacation West
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Panzer and their daughters, Gayle and Eunice spent three weeks traveling to California in their car and sleeping trailer. They spent eight days visiting Peggy's brother in Redland, Calif. While there they went to Los Vegas. A day was spent at Tijuana, Mexico. They also spent three days visiting Ray's brother who lives near Houston, Texas.

Birthday Party
Little Vicky Manuel had a winding of a party to celebrate her second birthday, August 13.

Kadettes
The Lake Villa Kadettes received a seventh place when then competed at the Illinois State Fair recently. Thirteen drill teams were entered. Twenty-four girls were there. The youngsters are all 10 and 11 year olds. They would like to have about 60 girls, because the larger the group, the better appearance they would make. If you are interested, go up to the VFW hall in Lake Villa any Tuesday night when they rehearse.

The mothers who accompanied the girls were Mesdames Helen Page, Bert Harceg, Dorothy Aldridge, June Schneider and Connie Schneider.

In the hope of raising $2,000 to go to the Cleveland, Ohio, convention next year, the girls are going to have a paper drive the last Thursday and Friday of every month. Also, they will have a card party the last Wednesday evening of every month at the VFW post in Lake Villa starting at 8 p.m.

Sixth Child
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ess formerly of Hazelwood Drive and now of Fifth Avenue in Lake Villa are receiving congratulations on the birth of a little girl born to them Aug. 15 at St. Therese Hospital. Little Sue weighed 5 pounds, 8 ounces at birth.

Channel Lake News

By Pearl Kapell

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwik Raymond, Channel Lake, have a young house guest for the next week—Edna Laurer from Park Falls, Wis. Edna has never visited Chicago, and the Raymonds plan to spend a couple of days showing her the sights.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The Channel Lake Community Club will hold a card party after the meeting Tuesday night, Sept. 10. The Club has planned a hay ride and box social for Saturday night, Sept. 14. It's an adult affair, and will start from Channel Lake School at 8 p.m.

Visual Teaching Aids May Stop Drop-Outs

Sixteen Chicago area schools will be given visual teaching equipment this year by Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co., in a program aimed at combating the school drop-out problem.

Pupils who drop out of school are often poor readers. Because of this, they are unable to keep up in their studies and lose interest.

The visual teaching equipment is a product of Thermo-Fax Sales, Inc., a 3-M subsidiary. The equipment will be awarded to 500 schools across the nation. The equipment will be selected from applications submitted by principals and administrators, by a national selection committee. All schools, at all levels, whether public, parochial or private, are eligible to apply for the grants. The equipment becomes the property of the winning school.

PAUL CAPPITELLI, BUD GIER, Ed Groth and Mike Heinlein, join in groundbreaking ceremonies at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Lake Villa on August 11.

Break Ground for New Church

Ground breaking ceremonies of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Lake Villa, were held Sunday, August 11, at 3 p.m. 150 members and friends of the congregation attended. The new church will be located just two miles west of Lake Villa on Grand Avenue.

Rev. K. F. Haskell, the congregation's pastor, addressing the gathering, said, "If we do not keep the message of our Saviour Jesus who died that we might have forgiveness of our sins in this church—we will have no solid foundation, we will have no house of God."

Pastor Haskell and the members of the building committee, Messrs. Paul Cappitelli, Bud Gier, Ed Groth, and Mike Heinlein, turned the spade for the first unit. This unit is expected to be completed by the end of the year. This first unit will become a parish hall; a larger church, school and parsonage to be built at a later date.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church was begun two years ago by an area census. Services were begun January 21, 1962. Formal organization was recognized on June 10, 1962. The congregation numbers about 170 baptized souls. Worship services are being held at the Grass Lake School on Grass Lake Road at 8 and 10:45 a.m. Sunday School at 9:15 a.m. The parsonage, which was recently leased, is next to the church site, 1622 W. Grand Avenue.

The car rolled silently through the enchanting dark woodland road. The ebony atmosphere was broken here and there by faint moonbeams floating motionlessly through space. The young romantics were in the throes of ecstatic bliss, when the beautiful maiden suddenly blurted out, "John dear, can you drive with only one hand?"

"Yes, my love," cooed the driver in ecstatic anticipation.

"Then darling," continued the girl, "you'd better wipe your nose, it's raining."

A recession is a period in which you tighten your belt. A depression is a time in which you have no belt to tighten. When you have no trousers to hold up, it's a panic.

Emerson 3; Bally Muck 2
Saturday night in the semifinals Emerson Buick rallied in the late innings to defeat a rugged Bally Muck team, 3 to 2.

Trailing 2 to 1 in the eighth, Emerson's Shorty Reich led off with a hit and stretched it to a double. He advanced to third on Carlucci's infield out, and then raced home with the tying run on Chuck Larson's infield out.

Zaitz B-o-m-b-s in Ninth
A lead off double by Eddy Zaitz started the ninth. An intentional pass to Frank Heiselmann and a solid hit by Jack Lawrence gave his team the win.

Stu Nelson and John Koziak had 2 hits each for the losing Muckers.

The play of the night was Dick Carlucci's pick-off throw to Eddy Zaitz, nailing out Marty Berkan off second base.

Genualdi's 11; Puzzles 7
In game 2, it was Round Lake's 20 hits that downed a highly favored Puzzles team out of North Chicago 11 to 7.

Joe Genualdi, Stu Koutney, Leo Gerretsen and Willie Grogan blasted out 12 hits, each getting 3 in the upset. Jim Rodgers hit the only homer of the game.

For Puzzles, it was Billy Byrne with 3 for 3 and Tony Mozinga with 3 for 4.

Little League Play-Off For Champions

The Antioch Little League season ended this week with the State Bank Tigers first in the White Division and the Antioch Lumber Giants first in the Gray Division, each team losing two games during the season. The playoff for the championship starts Wednesday, Aug. 21, with the second game scheduled for Saturday, August 24. If a third game is necessary, it will be played on the following Monday.

The Giants and Tigers have met 3 times this year, the Tigers winning the first game 9-0, and the Giants taking the next one 2-1. The third game was a 7-7 tie that was not replayed.

The Giants are defending champions; early in the season they were mainly a slugger team, hitting 12 over the fence in 15 games. Coach Wes Camp is counting on heavy hitting, plus an air tight infield, to back up the pitching of Rodney Miller and Dave Camp. The Tigers of

Who'll Be Mr. & Mrs. Illinois

Ed and Marge Rakosnik of Chicago will defend their Illinois Mr.-Mrs. fishing championship Sunday against 26 other finalists on Channel Lake and Lake Catherine in the Chain O' Lakes.

The Rakosniks were seeded into the finals. They won the 1st annual meet last year when they defeated Don and Marge Nichols of La Grange Park by 11½ points. The Chicagoans totaled 96½ points to the suburban couple's 85½.

The Nichols gained the finals by qualifying with 144½ points on Wednesday, August 14. They caught four black bass, one northern pike and four white bass.

Gordon Valling have been the team to beat all season and still loom as a slight favorite due to their superior defense and the excellent pitching of Greg Williams. The Tigers' second starting pitcher in the series will probably be Dennis McCarthy.

Others who have qualified include: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Svoboda of Antioch; Mr. and Mrs. Don Worrall of Wauconda; Mr. and Mrs. George Kramer of McHenry; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doppelt of Skokie; Mr. and Mrs. John Egnath and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wendell of Round Lake; Mr. and Mrs. George Kudsk of Evanston; and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Badka of Chicago.

Sunday's title fished will be held between 9 a.m. and 12 noon, and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

A title trophy will go to the winner as well as the other top nine fishing couples. In addition, the champions will win an all-expense trip to the U. S. Mr.-Mrs. fishing tournament on Bull Shoals lake, at Bull Shoals, Ark.

Barney Shumerson of the Channel Lake Boat House is donating the 10 trophies and the traveling expenses to and from the Bull Shoals lake.

Cookin'?

By Harry H. Stern

Sing a song, shout a loud hosanna, "the lotus is back" try that on your piano.

After being absent for three years, the lotus have come back and are in bloom. There are two small patches of 'em; one, at the west end of the Grass Lake bridge (on the north side) and another patch nearby in Jackson Bay. There may be more in other places, like Morley's Bay, off the Fox River, between Grass and Fox Lakes. They're in full bloom now and if you wanna see 'em, don't wait, because they do not bloom forever. Please do not pick 'em. (a) There's a stiff fine if you get caught, and (b) the seed-pod is formed after they bloom. No seed—no lotus. Last time they were present was in 1950, the year prior to the big flood.

So what? If I ain't efficient I'm cute.

After a meeting of the Phillips 66 dealers, Eddie (gasoline tycoon) Haling put in an appearance at the Arlington Hoss Improvement Diggings, where a beetle named Iva Linda was due for a workout. Because Ed's cute little daughter's handle is Linda, he plunked down a two buck bet and was rewarded with a return of $382. This was merely the highest paying nag in Arlington's history, and he was there. Bunny, who works for Ed, sent along a deuce to be bet for him (his horse is still out on the track, somewhere) and is disputing whose money was bet (continued on page 8)

Greyhound Eastern Division Champion in Ski Boat Races

Louis Portalski, well-known chauffeur of winning racing boats, is busy competing, and winning, in races around the country this summer.

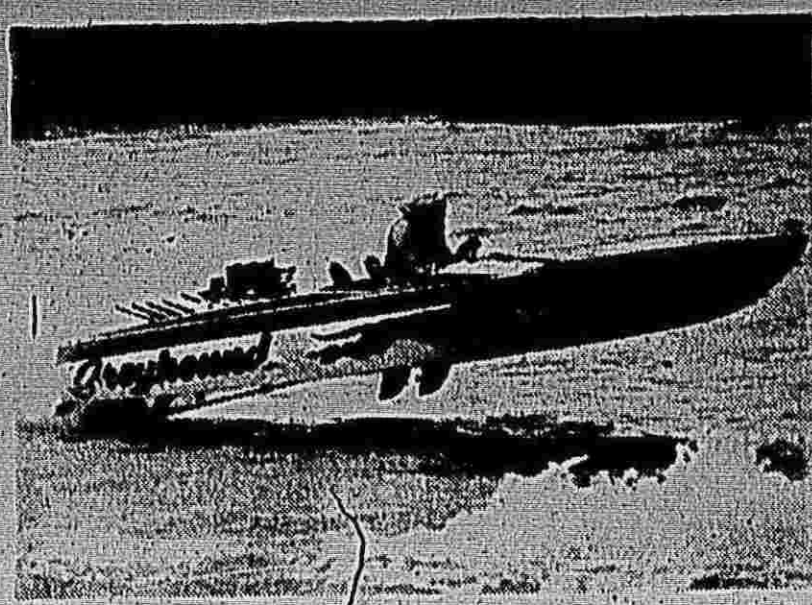

On July 27 and 28, Lou drove the Greyhound SK-77 to victory in the Eastern Division races at Clarksville, Va. This gave him and the Greyhound the Championship for ski boats.

The race was nearly disastrous for another driver, Vince Uebelshaupt of North Lake, Ill., piloting Miss Pronounced SK-34. His boat flipped during the race and Vince was knocked unconscious. Lou jumped in and aided the unconscious man, who had cracked ribs and a back injury.

Poor Excuse SK-95, with driver Pat Johnson of Berkeley, finished 4th.

At Louisville, Kentucky, the Greyhound SK-77 took first place again, with Long Gone SK-7 second. The Long Gone, driven by Les Brown, flipped during the race but the driver was not injured. Miss Pronounced finished third.

The next race for Lou and the Greyhound will be at the Aqua Playdium, west of Joliet, on August 25 at 1 p.m. There will be a full slate of heats, including 150 hydros, 200 hydros, racing runabouts, outboard pleasure crafts and the SK class.

The Kankakee, Illinois, regatta, after the Labor Day week-end, will include the same class of boats, and also the kilo trials, which is the approximately 1/4 mile speed trap in which many boats may break the now standing records for APBA in their respective class.

Greyhound is now high point standing SK for the Eastern Division. She's an 18-foot fiber-glass boat with a Chrysler engine, owned by Bob and Dick Flood of Chicago. The Flood brothers and Lou's son-in-law, Joe Gutowski, accompanied him to the Clarksville, Va., races.

What's Cookin'?

The leader of a flock of wild geese said to the bird following, "stop that darn honking! If you wanna pass, pass."

Fishing Report—Couple of guys came in off of Lake Marie with enough crappies to restock Fox Lake. Quite a goodly number were those big black crappies (calico bass, girls). They declined to identify themselves but they did divulge the secret of their success. Some kind of fly they called "crappie-killer" which they claimed to have purchased at Sorenson's Bait and Bull Mill. I thought they were pulling my leg (the good one) so I checked with Ed. He's got a fly like this and its name is based on its reputation. I'm gabberflashed.

Government statistics indicate that car-loadings for the last six months have been down, while whiskey sales are up. All this proves is that more people are getting loaded than freight cars.

Ed Sorenson was out fishing Monday and came in with a string of eight nice black bass. He got 'em up at the north end of Channel Lake, on a Johnson Silver Minnow and a pork chunk. He kept 'em on a stringer in one of his bait tanks and hauled 'em out to show every time someone entered his emporium. By nightfall those fish were completely worn out. Nothing left but heads, tails and backbone.

"Our Leader" Dick Waters led the three male Ebermans up to Lake Winnebago on a fish catching safari Sunday. They did well. They caught one three-foot garfish, two crayfish, two red-eyes, ten sheepshead (fresh water drum, girls). Not you, Annie. You know, six jumbo perch—oh, yes, and 30 walleyes.

By now, boats left in the water all season are likely to be a little fuzzy around the edges. This marine growth has a tremendous effect in reducing boat performance. According to the engineers at Evinrude Motors, a speed loss of over 50 per cent can occur when a boat is left moored for only 30 days and marine growth is allowed to accumulate.

Since a smooth, clean boat bottom is absolutely necessary in getting top performance, boats left at a mooring should be removed and cleaned every five weeks. If the hull is badly fouled, it may be necessary to use a scraper and wire brush. Plain scum can usually be cleaned off with a scrub brush and good detergent. Antifouling bottom paint will help retard the accumulation of marine growth, but even with this protection, an occasional cleaning will be necessary.

If your boat has been left in the water and doesn't seem to have the pep it did earlier in the season, check the bottom. A little elbow grease may be all that is needed to restore its performance.

RUB-A-DUB-DUB-DUB, Passage to Ethiopia, anyone?

In 1962, 54.5 per cent of all boat purchasers mentioned water-skiing as an intended use, an increase of approximately 12 per cent over the 1960 and 1961 level.

News Team Leads Golf League

Those intrepid stalwarts of the green and fairway, Dr. Ben Berke, Joe Martinucci, Ted Johnson and Howard (Dub) Shepard, the Antioch News team in the golf league, moved into first place in the league last week with only one week of play left.

The Antioch News team is 1/2 point ahead of Paddock Lake "00" and Walker's Barber Shop, who are tied for second with 37 1/2 points. Next in point standings is Paddock Lake Lumber with 36 points, followed by Spring Valley Tap & Grill, 35; Lang's L.G.A., 34 1/2; Antioch Lumber, 33 1/2; Bacon's Cheese, 33; Spring Valley C. C., 31 1/2; Stage Stop, 30; Antioch Landscaping, 29; and Decker's Tavern, 20 points.

The last round will be played Thursday (today).

The banquet will be held September 14 at Pasadena Gardens. Trophies will be presented at the banquet.

The teams have played weekly all summer, nine holes, in the evening, at Spring Valley Country Club. It is a handicap league.

Hensley Motor Leads League

By Bill Ferris

With one game to go, it's Hensley Motors leading the pack by half a game. Wednesday night they broke the tie with Lyons & Ryan by whipping Pine Oaks 18 to 8. Ray Nosko was the big Hensley gun with 4 hits in 5 trips to the plate. Ralph Remus had a triple and home run, Wayne Zeitz 2 hits, Guy Flachsenr 2, and Ron Weitz 3.

Hensley's record now stands at 11 wins and 4 losses to Lyons & Ryan's 10 wins and 4 losses.

For Pine Oaks, it was defeat No. 13 in a row.

Rich Weir went 3 for 5 and is hitting at .458. Daryl Sullivan, Pete Gaertner, and Lyle Downs each had 2 hits, and Elmer Frell blasted a home run.

Lindstrom Wins For Lyons-Ryan
Monday night it was Lyons-Ryan with a 12 to 4 win over Golfview.

Dud Sheehan and Bob Martin had 3 hits each and Greg Bush, Dick Wolf, and John Hedberg went 2 each.

For the Badgers of Golfview who took their fifth loss, it was Dick Cifasi, Ken Nicpon, Mike Cirone and George Lystlund leading the hitting with a total of 9.

Tuesday's game between Fred Dodge's Badgers and Pete Matteoni's Sportsmen was rained out.

Cubs Win Last Game Of Season

The Little League Cubs trounced the Yankees, 10-0, Sunday, August 18, in the last game of the season. Ricky Nelson pitched a one-hit game for the win, with catcher Chip Gross helping to hold the Yanks scoreless when he threw out Skip Brown, the only Yank batter who managed to get a hit off Nelson.

Nelson struck out 12 of the 18 batters he faced, and gave up 4 walks to the Yankees. The Cubs made two double plays to hold the Yanks scoreless.

Skip Brown was the pitcher for the losing Yankees, and Jim Polley was the catcher.

Jim Carlson led the hitting for the Cubs, with 3-hits in four times at bat.

Tigers Beat Dodgers

The Tigers exploded for 8 runs in the second inning and went on to take a decisive 15 to 6 win over the Dodgers. The Little League Tigers gave up only 7 hits behind the pitching of Bruce Volling.

Ray Frank came up with the best fielding performance of the contest when he made a running over the shoulder catch of a fly ball hit deep to left field. Losing pitcher was Mike Lindstrom.

Famous Twins To Shoot Speedway Pics Sunday Night

As a part of their continuing program to make the new Waukegan Speedway more exciting, Promoters Bob Karry and Gordon Sill have hired the TV-famous Rowe Twins. These girl photographers, now on the WNBQ-TV "Jack Elgen Show," will appear at the Speedway Sunday night, July 25. Their assignment will be to shoot a picture-story of the track's new, improved facilities, the drivers and cars in action and pictures of fans enjoying the races.

Karry & Sill have set up a super race program to mark the evening as memorable for the girls. A special 30-lap feature race for Modified cars will be called the "Rowe Special." Seven other races are also scheduled starting at 8 p.m.

All-Stars Lose To Kenilworth Team

The Little League All-Stars journeyed to Cicero Sunday to play Kenilworth in the Lexon AC Invitational Tournament. Both Dave Camp of Antioch and the Kenilworth lefty allowed only two hits, but some fielding miscues allowed Kenilworth to single runs in the second and fifth innings for a 2-0 victory. Rodney Miller with a double and Bruce Volting with a single constituted Antioch's only threat.

Dave Camp gave up 2 hits, walked 4, and struck out 13 in 5 innings.

Heat winners were: Hoffman, Bozeman, Olet and Rogers. Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee set fast time for the evening with 17.31 for the quarter-mile circuit.

Schuster Sets Track Record

Ted Schuster of Zion set a new, all-time 30-lap track record at Waukegan Speedway Sunday night, when he copped the feature race in 8:47.77 to beat out Bill Shoulters of Waukegan and Johnny Reimer of Caledonia, Wis. Reimer spun in the final lap and lost his sure second to Shoulters but was running quickly enough to hang on for third. Fran Seamars, Eddie Stillman, and Don Soree were across the line 4th, 5th and 6th.

The newly-graded track at the Speedway was so fast, Stillman's record time of 8:57.86, set only last week, went by the wayside as the powerful Modified stock cars churned up the clay. Duane Harris of McHenry came home first in the semi-feature of 15 laps with Jim Bozeman, Fran Ansell and Robert Hoffman of Round Lake trailing him in 4:39.66.

Heat winners were: Hoffman, Bozeman, Olet and Rogers. Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee set fast time for the evening with 17.31 for the quarter-mile circuit.

Other money winners included: "Junior" Dodd, Waukegan; Claude Potter, Twin Lakes; Fran Ansell, Milwaukee; Jim Bozeman, Waukegan; Johnny Reimer, Caledonia, Wis.; Dick VanDerSpool, Gurnee; Jimmy Olet, West Allis; Don Soree, West Allis; and Ed Irvin, Wau-

kagan. Bill Shoulters copped the fourth heat ahead of Fran Ansell and Ron Larson in a fast event which saw Glenn Elchman of Lake Zurich hook into Ken Heiden of Barrington.

Bill Morris of Elgin was the only roll-over in a crash-studded feature race for the fender cars. Bob Dugan of Waukegan was the winner with "Pop" Kline second and Bill Robbs, Antioch, third. Fender-car heats went to Kline and Eddie Jones, Waukegan.

Next Saturday night, "Beat Your Neighbor" races will be staged by promoters Bob Karry and Gordon Sill. Entry forms will be signed by the fans as they enter the race track and a drawing held to determine who gets to drive in the fender-car, novelty race. Automobiles are furnished by a variety of Waukegan dealers. Sill said today.

BOATING WITH BOWMAN

By Hank Bowman
(Courtesy Sequoit Harbor)

TRIM TRICKS FOR BOATMEN

Without guidance, unaided landlubbers are apt to hang an outboard on the back of their new boat, hop in, take a whirl on the lake, have their back teeth nearly slapped out and decide that if this is boating, they'll stick to horseback riding.

Even some people who grew up with salt in their hair and spray on their sunglasses think that taking a beating is a part of boating. But it isn't so. In defense of all the millions of intelligent and happy boatmen, I will say categorically they are not masochists who like lumps and bruises—they just know how properly to hang an outboard motor on the backs of their boats.

That's right. An improperly set up motor on any boat can make the thing handle worse than an ill-tempered horse—Or to the other extreme, wallow like a water buffalo.

No one is happy very long with a boat that alternately lifts its bow and slaps it down in the water again with a metronome-like rhythm. This Seesawing action is usually referred to as porpoising.

If your own boat has a tendency to porpoise, decrease the motor angle, that is, move the lower unit closer to the transom of the boat. Every outboard motor has some means of transom adjustment, either notches or supporting pin hole adjustments in a quadrant type bracket.

Try bringing the motor in, first one, then two adjustments. This will bring the bow down and will usually stop the slapping motion.

At the same time you will find that the boat will bounce onto plane without struggling and you'll suddenly find that it has increased gumption for pulling water skiers.

This motor-angle deal can work to both extremes. If the motor is tucked in too close to the transom, the boat can become bow heavy. It will have a tendency to plow rather than to plane, to bury its nose in the turns, toss green water all over its passengers every time it encounters a wave and on a straightaway it may fall off to either side so that the boat will refuse to run on an even plane.

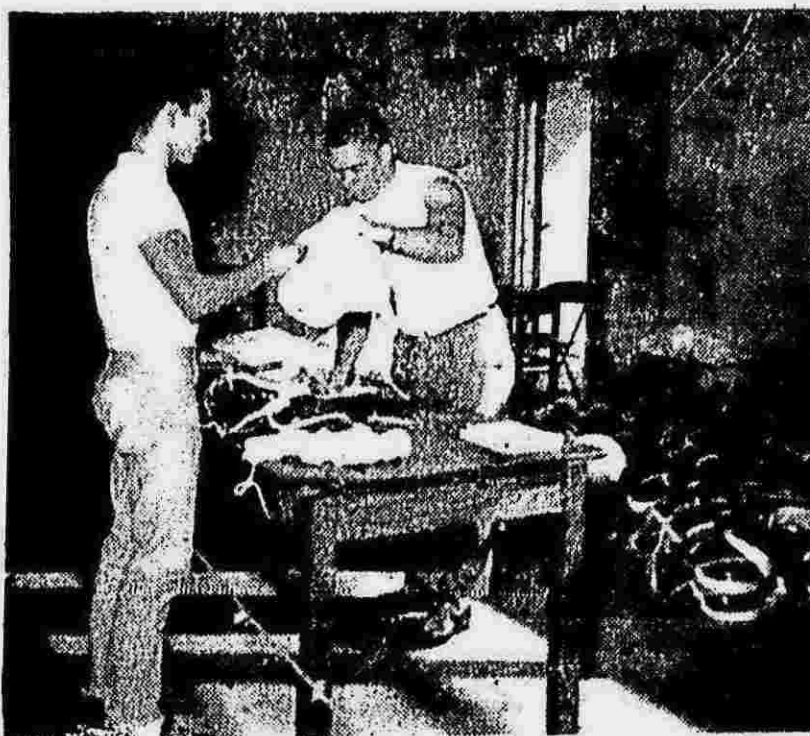

If the handling characteristics of your boat fall into this category, try moving the lower unit out a notch or two and chances are you'll find this makes all the difference in the world and you'll probably pick up some added speed.

L. V. League News

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

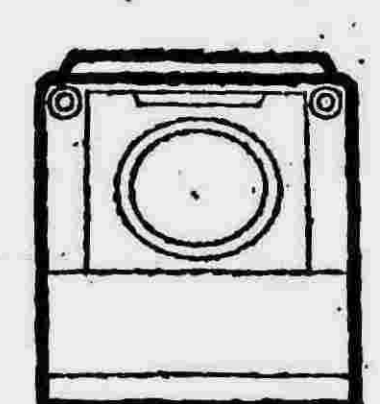

The Lake Villa Township Junior Baseball Organization will have its annual presentation of trophies Sunday, August 25, at the VFW hall in Lake Villa at 2 p.m. Trophies will be awarded to the Little League and Pony League players by their managers as a result of their play during the past season. All boys affiliated with the Lake Villa Township Baseball Organization and their parents are invited to attend.

According to studies by the Outboard Boating Club of America, more than 68 per cent of those purchasing boats list fishing as the primary intended use. Next in popularity was cruising closely followed by water-skiing and hunting.

Schuster Wins Feature Race at Wilmot Track

Ted Schuster of Zion took the lead on the fifth lap from Jr. Dodd of Waukegan and went on to score his first feature race win of the season at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot. In winning, Schuster withstood the hard charges of track point leader and defending champion, Ed Stillman of Milwaukee, Bill Shoulders of Waukegan and Ray Darnell of Deerfield. Each tried several times to shake the lead out of the capable hands of Schuster who remained calm and in command of the lead for the remaining 20 laps.

Jr. Dodd went out of the race in an effort to get back into the lead that carried him into the fence out of control. Shoulders remained in and took second after Stillman got into the loose dirt on the outside and dropped to fifth. Darnell and Rodger Otto of Burlington both got by him. Then Darnell's car gave out and he slowed. Stillman recovered to take third; Otto fourth and Don Sorce of West Allis fifth.

Bob Hoffman of Round Lake; George Utveck of Kenosha; Bill Strom of Milwaukee and Ron Larson of Racine were heat race winners. The semi-feature saw Tom Aschenbrenner of Milwaukee take the lead from Bill Booth of McHenry and hold it for the win. This race had a spectacular seven car pile up with Stevens, Motter, Bohn, Strohmman, Timan, and Vanderspool all unable to restart. However, none of the drivers was injured.

Dick Alssen of McHenry leading point driver, was injured in time trials when his car rolled over four times on the straightaway. He was taken to Burlington Memorial Hospital for shoulder X-ray.

The spectator races were won by Mike Wolf, Lake Villa, and Dennis Burgen, Waukegan. Rodger Hagt of Antioch made it two features in a row as he won the 15-lap final for spectator cars.

Next Saturday night a 50-lap modified feature will be run.

Race For Champ at Dragaway

The first annual "North American Stock Car Championships" will be Sunday, Aug. 25. It will be held at the Great Lakes Dragaway, Union Grove, Wis., and is a "National Association" (N.A.D.S.) dragstrip event.

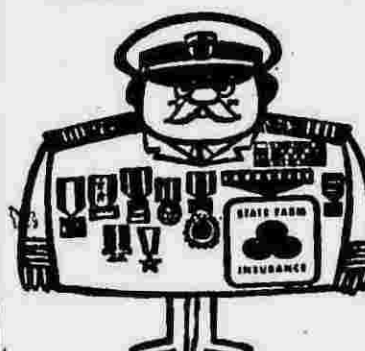

Most of the top drivers and the fastest cars in the nation are expected to compete in what probably will be the biggest all stock drag meet ever held.

Featured will be the powerful 1962 super stocks, 1963 ultra stocks, and 1964 experimental.

The nation's number 1 ranked driver Arnie Deswick of Morrison, Ill., who maintained his undefeated math race record 3 weeks ago against Dick Brannon of South Bend, Ind., has already entered two cars in the race. A 1963 Pontiac Catalina and a Tempest Wagon with a Grand Prix engine. The Tempest wagon is a factory experimental car featuring the new (Synchromatic Transaxel). This means that the axle and transmission are all in one complete unit.

The trials begin at 9 a.m. with the first race starting at 1:30 Sunday, August 25, at the Great Lakes Dragaway, located 12 miles north of the Wisconsin-Illinois state line on Hwy. 45 at Union Grove, Wis.

Wilmot News

By Mrs. Herman Frank
JOHN EHLEERT

John Ehleert, 82, a resident of Ringwood, Ill., the past 11 years and formerly of Wilmot, died Wednesday, Aug. 14, at Kenosha Memorial Hospital following a short illness. He was born Aug. 23, 1880, in the rural Richmond, Ill., area, and had farmed all his life in the Wilmot area. He was a member of Peace Lutheran church, Wilmot.

He married Louise Frank on Oct. 1, 1902. He and his wife celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last October.

Surviving besides his widow are five sons: Herman and Lyle of Wilmot; Russell, Richmond, Dean, Kenosha, and Duane, Burlington; and five daughters: Mrs. Cyril (Elsie) Pacey, Wilmot; Mrs. John Skidmore (Edith), Ringwood; Mrs. Fred (Hazel) Bauman, Wonder Lake; Mrs. Tony (Mildred) Senkerik, McHenry; and Miss Mabel Eh-

Glen, with Mr. and Mrs. Orville Clark and the Raymond Hauser family, attended the Clark reunion Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bonner at Kansasville, Wis.

tert, at home. He is also survived by 33 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by one son, Frank.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon by Rev. George Enderle with burial in Wilmot cemetery.

Mrs. Herman Frank returned home Saturday after 8 days at the Kenosha Memorial Hospital with a heart ailment.

Mrs. Nelva Van Slochteren underwent a major operation Thursday at Burlington Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Edith Taylor, Peoria, Mrs. Nellie Hanke and daughters, Antioch, called on Mrs. Paul Ganzlin recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puertert, Northbrook, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Vern Grover, Lakeland, Fla., were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gyger, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Elroy McRae.
